FACES OF THE COAST

William Colgin/The Mississippi Press

Shelley Charlton

Shelley Charlton is one of the many volunteers in the Jackson County Evening Civic League. She joined the charity group in 2004 because she wanted to help in the community. Charlton says, "It's a joy to volunteer my time to help people," and "Knowing what I'm doing is going to benefit the community." Shelley was born and raised in Pascagoula but currently lives in Wade with her husband, Pete Charlton, and their 11 year-old son, Pete Murphy. When she isn't volunteering, Shelly enjoys boating and traveling and loves to help her son with his soccer.
